Plaintiff,))) DETENTION ORDER
v.)))
DUSTIN BURT,

I. DETENTION ORDER

Defendant Dustin Burt is charged in a criminal complaint a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2113(a) (bank robbery). Mr. Burt was arrested in Arizona and made a Rule 5 appearance in Phoenix before Magistrate Judge Edward C. Voss on April 15, 2011. Judge Voss removed Mr. Burt to this district. On May 6, 2011, Mr. Burt made his initial appearance in the charging district and the United States moved for Mr. Burt's detention and asked for a detention hearing, as permitted by 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f). Defendant did not request a full bail study at this time. Pretrial Services did, however, prepare a criminal record report. At the May 9, 2011 hearing before this Court, Defendant waived the timing of his right to proffer information at a detention hearing, see 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f) (a defendant has the right at a section 3142(f) hearing, with the assistance of counsel, to testify, to present witnesses, to cross-examine adverse witnesses, and to present information by proffer or otherwise), and retained his right to raise any additional relevant information at a later hearing. The Court notes that Defendant is subject to at least one active state arrest warrant at this time.

After considering the limited information available to the Court, and the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g), the Court detains Mr. Burt as a serious risk of flight and finds that no condition or combination of conditions in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(c) will reasonably assure his appearance in this case. See 18 U.S.C. §§ 3142(e) and (f); United States v. Motamedi, 767 F.2d 1403, 1406 (9th Cir. 1985).

II. CONCLUSION

The Court detains Mr. Burt as a serious flight risk. Because Defendant waived his right to present information under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f) without prejudice to raising relevant information at a later hearing, the Court orders that the hearing may be reopened at Defendant's request at any future time.

Mr. Burt shall remain committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which Defendant is confined shall deliver Defendant to a United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
